Or it might have economized room, and simply repeated Dennis Kearney's cry: "Pool your issues!"

We observe that Wash. McLean, who is now in Washington, and who has been interviewed, takes the same view as the Enquirer, which is not strange considering the fact that the paper is run by his sor John, who, if possible, has less conscience than his father. The following conversation occurred between Wash, and the re Wash said that the prospects of the Democracy in Ohio "looked a little gloom) a while ago, but are brighter now." The brightness arose from the union of the Democracy with the Nationals, Wash thought that, with the aid of the Nation als, the Republicans would be beaten forty thousand, which is almost up to the figur prophesied for Allen's majority in 1874. The interview continued:

Reporter—"But if you don't unite?"
Wash.—"Then we'll lose it by that number, and moreover we will lose every State we now have in the North."

Reporter—"But how are you going to mite if they insist upon going it nlone?"
Wash.—"Easy enough; make a platform that they can stand on, and then divide the ticket with them; give them the biggest half, for that matter, if they want it. We can afford to be liberal with other people's goods. If we don't do it the Republicans will."
Reporter.—"How can they go to the Republicans or the Republicans got to thum when they are so diametrically opposed on their linancial question?"
Wash—Good party leaders don't stop to consider that matter, when there is an end to attain. Get the power and then settle the differences, if there are any. Wellington didn't stop to ask about any differences of opinion on points of religion, politics,

POLITICAL NOTES.

Richmond Dispatch says in regard to the rumor that the Clerk of the House does not intend to put the Iowa facts are the same as in West Virginia in | inent merchants. The petition given to a reporter in Chicago last Tuesday are thus summarized in a dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial: He thinks that Randall will undoubtedly be elected Speaker; that the Nationals will form a distinct party, but not a dangerous one; that Grant will be the Republican candidate in 1880, for, although he is not the choice of the majority of the people, he of one of our greatest rommercial enter. given to a reporter in Chicago last Tueschoice of the majority of the people, he will be regarded by party managers as the prises. most available man; he does not have a very high regard for Tilden, either as a plied with.

There is quite a secession spirit in Missouri just now. Kausas City has been making a strong effort to get the State line fixed, so as to be included in the territory of Kausas, and St. Louis is talking about cets. Kansas, and St. Louis is talking about getting herself annexed to Illinois. A meniber of the Legislature has also introduced a bill to split the State into a North and South Missouri. There is little likelihood that any of these measures will succeed at present, but it must be a poor State from which hereliif cities want to secede. No wonder that immigrants cut right slightly injured. No wonder that immigrants cut right across it without stopping, to the fertile acros of Kansas beyond. Even the Dem-noon, the hour of adjournment, approached, the hands of the clock were turned back half an hour. Mr. Turner, a memher, took his stand under the clock and de-Ged say person to turn it back again. He red before the bar of the House. He threatened to kill the door-keeper who was ordered to arrest him, and dared the Speaker to come down and help to do it.

Obio Politics.

The Cincinnati Enquirer reads the Ohio Democracy a sermon on the text of the recent nuptials of the Democrats and Greenbackers in Michigan. It advocates an open union of the Democrats and the Nationals in Ohio as the only certain means of carrying the State next fall, and suggests that ron didn't stop to usk about any differences of opinion on points of religion, politics, race, or anything else, did he, when Blueher's Dutch came to his assistance at Waterloo? Not by a long sight. He just let the Dutch go in, and won the battle. These fellows laugh at me when I tell them that the Republicans will form an aliance with the Nationalsit we don't, they'll see that I am right. Why, they're thone it already in several districts, and several of the members-elect on that ticket are Republicanse, and they'll do it everywhere if we don't. I'd give them every thing they asked. I told John Thompson not long ago that in the organization of this House I'd give them everything but Speaker rather than take any risk. that this action on the part of Moses and other Chiefs virtually ends all probabilities of Indian hostilities the coming summer. This is the opinion, too, of the general public.
